AN UNFORTUNATE YOUNG WOMAN .-Monday morning intelligence was brougat to the Providence, R. I., police station that Miss Harvey, about thirty years of age, a daughter of Mr. William H. Harvey, had suddenly left her home Sunday afterneon, and had not been heard from. Two letters were found which she had left behind her. and which indicate that she has committed suicide, and such the police authorities, who have investigated the matter, believe the case to be. She was seen at the pier of the Fall River line of steamers just before the boat left for New York Sunday night. It is now believed that she 'umped overboard from the steamer and was drowned. The sudden death of her wealthy paramour last week, and the fact that he left no message for her, are said to be the causes of her strange disappearance. The man who was the cause of her ruin had a family and was very wealthy. A most distressing scandal is likely, in view of the supposed respecta bility of the parties concerned.
